

PHILOSOPHY SPEECH
PHILOSOPHY SPEECH
PHILOSOPHY SPEECH

DR. TIBOR MACHAN

PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY AT THE STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE IN FREDONIA, NEW YORK

WILL SPEAK AT CSUF
WED., APRIL 21
12 NOON
ROOM H113

MACHAN'S SPEECH IS ENTITLED "THE ASSAULT ON HUMAN RIGHTS: IDEAS AND CONSEQUENCES."

MACHAN'S BACKGROUND

Tibor Machan escaped from Hungary in 1953 at an early age and worked at several jobs before obtaining a B.A. from Claremont Men's College, a M.A. from New York University, and a PhD from UC Santa Barbara in Philosophy. He has been a radio commentator and columnist. His articles have appeared in various major periodicals (e.g. Barron's, Human Events) as well as for a dozen philosophical journals. A number of Dr. Machan's articles have appeared recently in Harper and Row's anthology, Outside Looking In.

Dr. Machan edited the highly acclaimed book, The Libertarian Alternative (Nelson Hall Co., 1974), authored The Pseudo-Science of B. F. Skinner (Arlington House, 1974) and recently wrote Human Rights and Human Liberties (Nelson Hall Co., 1975). He is completing an introductory text in philosophy for Allyn & Bacon at the present.

In his spare time, Machan is the editor of Reason Papers and the Senior Editor of the highly professional Reason magazine published in Santa Barbara.

Sponsored jointly by CSUF Philosophy Club and CSUF Society for Libertarian Life.